

BRANSON 2026

Monday, November 16: Today is a travel day, anticipating the excitement of the week ahead and enjoying the company of old friends and meeting new friends. We will travel to Overland Park, KS and overnight at the Drury Inn. We will enjoy a group dinner at Bristol Seafood Grill.

Tuesday, November 17: As we travel south, we will be stopping at Lambert's Café for lunch. Following lunch, we will continue on to Branson. After checking in to our hotel, Hilton Convention Center Hotel, we will enjoy dinner at the Black Oak Grill. Following dinner, we will attend Haygood's Christmas Show at the Clay Cooper Theater. The Haygood's, composed of 5 brothers and 1 sister, have been playing music together for 31 years and is the longest, most successful first generation show in the history of Branson. It will be an evening to remember!

Wednesday, November 18: This morning, we will enjoy a musical Tribute to Neil Diamond. Sing and clap along with some of the biggest hits from his career including: "Sweet Caroline," "Cherry Cherry Cracklin' Rose," "America," "Solitary Man," and many more classics that you will instantly recognize.

After a delicious lunch at Gettin' Basted, we'll continue the day with a performance by The Texas Tenors. The Texas Tenors Christmas Show is a heartwarming holiday spectacular that blends world-class vocals, festive storytelling and dazzling stagecraft into one unforgettable experience. From country ballads to Broadway classics and operatic arias, the trio's versatility shines even brighter during the holidays.

Our evening begins with a delightful dinner at Uptown Café, followed by the heartwarming melodies of The Dutton's Christmas Show. The Dutton's Christmas Show is a joyful, high-energy celebration that blends musical virtuosity, heartfelt family traditions, and festive fun into one unforgettable holiday experience. The Dutton family brings 15 performers to the stage, showcasing incredible skills on instruments like violin, banjo, guitar, harmonica, and more!

Thursday, November 19: This morning let the holiday spirit sweep us away at the dazzling Christmas Wonderland show, one of Branson's largest holiday productions. A sparkling cast of singers and dancers takes us on an unforgettable and magical sleigh ride to a grand Christmas extravaganza.

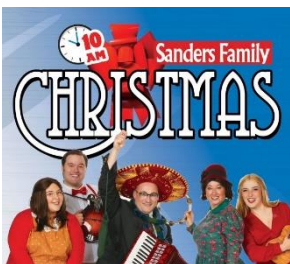

After lunch at Paula Deen's Family Kitchen, we will have some free time to relax and enjoy Branson Landing. Branson Landing offers more than 100 storefronts for shopping and is less than a mile long with a central, open-air promenade and a lakeside boardwalk.

Following our time at Branson Landing, we'll make our way to College of the Ozarks for a student-guided tour of its scenic campus and inspiring work-education model.

Tonight's plans include a delightful dinner at the Keeter Center restaurant—where farm-to-table flavors meet student-run hospitality—followed by the breathtaking production of the Miracle of Christmas at the Sight and Sound Theatre. This pairing offers the perfect blend of culinary excellence and theatrical wonder. The Keeter Center operated by students of the College of the Ozarks, is known for its upscale dining and warm, rustic charm. After dinner you'll be transported to Bethlehem through one of Branson's most spectacular holiday shows. The Miracle of Christmas is a multi-sensory experience that brings the Nativity story to life with massive sets, live animals, and stunning special effects.

Friday, November 20: Before we say goodbye to Branson, we'll enjoy one final heartwarming experience, the beloved Sanders Family Christmas. It's the perfect send-off packed with laughter, music, and heartfelt holiday spirit. The Sanders Family celebrate the holidays with faith, family, and old-fashioned fun! Sit back, relax, and enjoy!

Following lunch at McFarlain's Restaurant, we'll begin our journey home with a stop in Overland Park, Kansas—where the evening promises a delightful blend of dining and entertainment at the renowned New Theatre and Restaurant.

Saturday, November 21: As we wrap up a week filled with laughter and lasting memories, we make our way home today.
